Purchase of computer system by JNU

2904. SHRI SAGAR RAYKA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a very large computer system has recently been purchased by the JNU for its school of Computer Sciences;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the system has remained under-utilised;

(c) if so, what are the reasons therefor and what action Government propose to take to fix responsibility for under-utilisation of the computer system; and

(d) what steps Government propose to take to stop spending lakhs of rupees on purchase of small computers by the JNU when bigger computer system has remained unutilised?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI L. P. SHAHI): (a) According to the information furnished by JNU, a mini computer has been installed in the School of Computer and Systems Sciences in January, 1987.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Does not arise.

(d) According to the University, small computers are also needed for research and training by different schools in addition to Mini-computers.
